

EROBO

In E Robotics, students learn about the nature of robotics, the different forms they take and how to build them. The robots are built from the latest generation of Lego Mindstorm – NXT robotics kits and programmed with a highly flexible software package. Programming them allows the robots to perform every day tasks and behaviours.