PRINCIPAL'S NEWS

Quality teaching is the key to quality learning. At North Rockhampton High School each year we find sponsorship to send our teachers to the best training and to participate in study tours. This keeps North Rockhampton High School on the cutting edge.

Jordana Bembridge and Mycha Woodward were two of our teachers recently chosen to attend a two day workshop on Explicit Instruction in Melbourne. Teachers were asked to apply for positions to attend this workshop with 140 teachers from all over the state attending with 16 representing our local region.

Haileybury Newlands is a non-exclusive private school with 3500 students, over three campuses ranging from Prep to Year 12. They have been involved with Explicit Teaching for the past 8 years. Explicit Teaching involves teaching the sequence of - I do, We do, You do, reinforcing skills and content knowledge with teachers.
